THE RECALL

Being the Year Book
of
The Senior Class
of
The Western Military Academy

Volume II

Published by the class of 1924
Western Military Academy, Alton, Illinois

The Foreword

That you may have a pleasant hour now,
and in the years to come,
in enlivening memories of your student days; that friends may be remembered and the hopes of youth recalled;
this second volume of the Western Military Academy
RECALL has been compiled.

To

Captain Paul Murray Leurig

Director of the Department of English, in grateful appreciation of his value to the Academy as an instructor,

and to each of us as a friend,

we,

the class of nineteen hundred and twenty-four,

dedicate this the second volume of the Recall

*"Amidst the foliage and the towering walls
A summer path stands."*

*Ever showing, ever new,
When will the landscape try the view?*

"Street is the lane which runs below."

*While, deep within the dell the tinkling rill
Coils through the hollows with its silver drops*

Sound sleep by night, study and work
Together mix'd, united together
And sciences which most does please
With meditation — Pope.

The Honor Men of 1923

THE VALEDICTORIAN.

WILLIAM HENRY HORINE
HENRYETTA, OKLA.

Entered 1921. Upper Ten 1921-22-23. Average in the Senior year—95.95, 1923-24, Student at Leland Stanford University.

THE SALUTATORIAN.

MYRON I. VOSS.
CHICAGO, ILL.

Entered 1920. Upper Ten 1922-23. Average in the Senior year—94.24, Student at the University of Wisconsin.

THE HONOR GRADUATE.

WILLIAM G. KROUCH.
LARNED, KANSAS.

Entered 1919. Athletics—Second Football, First Basketball, Track. Military—Corporal, Sergeant, First Lieutenant. 1923-24, Student at the University of Kansas.

The Class of 1924 congratulates these men upon the high record which they established while at Western and which they have maintained during their Freshman year at these Universities.

GEORGE J. ALBIEZ
CHICAGO ILLINOIS.

Entered Sept. 1920.
Upper Ten 1922-23.
Corporal 1922-23.
Sergeant 1923-24.
Shrapnel Staff 1923.

Another small man who has proved that the old adage "that great expectations are done up in small packages." Some have hinted that Albiez is to become one of the great pugilists of the world. But, more than likely, he will become a captain of finance.

JOHN EDWARD ALEXANDER
CHICAGO, ILLINOIS.

Entered Sept. 1923.
Member of "A" Company.
Member of the Red Club.

Alexander, another one of the Chicago group, has demonstrated to us that he is a fitting find for the Class of '24. In the short time that he has been with us, we have found him to be a willing and steady worker.

JACK ABRAHAM, $\Phi\Delta$, $\Lambda\Lambda$ BRISTOW, OKLAHOMA.

Entered Sept. 1919.
Member Shrapnel Staff 1923.
Member Recall Staff 1924.
Vice-President Senior Class 1923.
Handball 1923.
Corporal 1922-23.
Field Music 1922.

"Little Abe" has become part of the great surroundings. It is difficult to imagine ourselves bidding him good-bye, for Abe has been with us for many years.

AUSTIN A. ALLEN, JR.
JOPLIN, Mo.

Entered Sept. 1921.
Corporal 1923-24.
Band 1922-23-24.
Orchestra 1922-23-24.
Red Club 1923-24.

Allen is a quiet fellow, who doesn't advertise himself very much. Yet, should not say that he has the "knaek" of sticking to things until he gets whatever he wants. His talent and mood have found the clarinet to be the best avenue of expression. A man, who in spite of all that have said may be called one who "toots his own horn."

EVERETT BLOSSAR
CARTHAGE, MISSOURI.

Entered Sept. 1923.
Rinkeydink Football 1923.
Blue Club 1923-24.
Second Platoon.

This man who hails from the State of Missouri has been with us for one year. During this time he has been very reliable in all of his academic duties. To him the duty of friendship is a serious thing. Good luck to you. May the years to come let us meet you again.

OTTO AUGUST BOSS
MONETT, Mo.

Entered 1920.
Re-entered 1923.
Graduated Feb. 1924.
First Football 1923.
Blue Club 1923-24.

To Boss we extend the right hand of fellowship—he returned to us but graduated or finished his work a semester ahead of us. In the short time that he was with us we learned to know him as a first-rate chap. Somehow his stay seemed every bit too short. In June when he returns for his "sheepskin" we shall renew friendships and pledge anew the bond for the future.

JACK BRADLEY, ΔΔΔ
PADUCAH, KENTUCKY.

Entered Sept. 1920.
Upper Ten 1921-22.
Glee Club 1920.
Hiking Club 1923.
Radio Club 1923.
Second Baseball 1923-23.
Field Music 1920.
Sergeant 1922-23-24.
One Pounders 1920-21-22-23-24.
Member Red Club.

Jack is one of the boys of the old school. Hailing from the Blue Grass state where fast horses—and—are to be found, Jack has brought with him the southern loyalty, true friendship, and sterling honesty.

GEORGE E. BRANNAN
CHICAGO, ILL.

Entered Sept. 1923.
Shrapnel Staff 1923-24.
"A" Company.
Red Club.

Brannan is another Chicago boy who has chosen Western as "his school." During his short stay at our school we have learned to know a good pal. May the years to come bring you success.

J. WILLOUGHBY BROOKS, ΔΔ
NEWTON, ILLINOIS.

Entered Sept. 1922.
Basketball 1923-24.
Tennis 1923-24.
Second Baseball 1923.
Track 1924.
Glee Club 1923-24.
Shrapnel Staff 1923-24.
Senior Stunt 1924.
Sergeant 2nd Platoon "B" Co.

Since Bobbie's entrance thru the old stone gateway, he has been busy making a name for himself. In his Senior year he not only carried his extra work, but played on the different teams, wrote for the Shrapnel, and sang with the Glee Club. His success in the battle of life should be easily won. Here is our hand, old pal, shake.

JAMES B. CHEW, ΔΣ
FORT WORTH, TEXAS.

Entered Jan. 4, 1922.
Shrapnel Staff 1923-24.
Glee Club 1922-23.
Band and Field Music 1922-23.
Tennis 1922-23.
Corporal 1923.
Sergeant 1923-24.
Rifle Team 1923-24.
Red Club 1923-24.

Jimmie comes from the Sunny South and brings with him the good natured ways of that country. To him is given the honor of a graduation in February 1924.

CHARLES EDGAR CLUTTER, A Δ
LARNED KANSAS.

Entered Sept. 1920.
Upper Ten 1920-21 22-23.
Treasurer Junior Class 1923.
Tennis Team 1923-24.
Second Basketball 1922-23.
Handball 1922-23.
Corporal B Company 1922-23.
Sergeant B Company 1922-23.
Lieutenant B Company 1923-24.
Red Club 1923-24.

Clutter is one of "our own products." His four years at Western have spelled out a record of activity in the classroom, on athletic field, and in military work.

WILLIAM CLYMER, ΦΔΔΔ
ST. LOUIS, MO.

Entered Sept. 1921.
Memorial Committee 1923-24.
Second Football 1922.
Second Basketball 1923.
Second Baseball 1923.
First Football 1923.
Corporal A Company 1922.
Sergeant A Company 1923.
Lieutenant 1924.
Rifle Team 1922-23-24.
Red Club.

Good-naturedness coupled with an earnest endeavor and willingness to do his best have been Bill's salient qualities. Next year will find him at Washington and Lee University.

JOSEPH EDWARD CORN
St. Louis, Mo.

Entered Jan. 1922.
Hiking Club 1922.
Corporal A Company 1923-24.
Red Club.

"The little giant" was the term given to Stephen A. Douglas. Why shouldn't we give the title to Corn. In the two years in which he has been at Western, he has made himself singular by his conscientious activity.

MANUEL E. CRUZ
CHIHUAHUA, MEXICO.

Entered 1920.
Upper Ten 1922-23.
Shrapnel Staff 1920-21-22-23-24.
Recall Staff 1923-24.
Track Team 1922-23.
Corporal 1923-23-24.
Field Music 1920-21-22-23-24.

The name Cruz M. connotes a trumpeter of the guard. Four years of Western life have been indulged in by Cruz. As a student he has been one of the reliable men in the classroom; as a member of the literary and military organizations he has been found to be invaluable.

RUDOLFO CRUZ, ΔΣΔΔ
CHIHUAHUA MEXICO.

Entered Sept. 1920.
Shrapnel Staff 1921-22-23-24.
Second Baseball 1921-22.
Second Basketball 1922.
Second Football 1923.
Captain First Basketball 1924.
First Baseball 1923-24.
First Football 1923.
Blue Club.

Bailey and Cruz—Now and forever, one and inseparable—that's the best phrase that would characterize Rudolfo. At the end of four years when Cruz returns to Mexico—carrying with him his sheepskin and his athletic trophies—we will realize that we have lost a good friend, a merry grin, and a good athlete.

LEWIS FRANCES DEGEN.
BARTLESVILLE, OKLAHOMA.

Entered 1920.
Shrapnel Staff 1920-21-22-23-24.
Memorial Committee 1923-24.
Bowling Team 1922-23-24.
Swimming Team 1922-23-24.
Handball 1923-24.
Band 1922-23-24.
Corporal in the Band 1923-24.
Machine Guns 1923.
Field Music 1920-21-22-23.

"Leaving no stone unturned" has been Degen's motto. And, from the looks of his record of achievements, he has captured a few scalps. As a member of the swimming team he has won recognition.

KENNETH S. DYSART, ΔΣ
DIXON, ILLINOIS.

Entered Sept. 1922.
Second Football 1922-23.
Corporal A Company 1923.
Sergeant 1924.
Machine Guns 1923.
Red Club 1923-24.

"See, what a grace is seated on this brow;—the front of Jove himself." There is an application in this line which well applies to Dysart. His stay at Western has been a pleasure to us; his leaving fills us with regret.

JOHN E. DRESCHER, ΔΔΔ, ΔΔ
WEBSTER GROVES, MO.

Entered Sept. 1921.
Memorial Committee 1923-24.
Shrapnel Staff 1923-24.
Recall Staff 1923-24.
Second Baseball 1922.
Second Football 1923.
Tennis Tournament 1922-23.
Interplatoon Basketball 1922-23.
Corporal A Company 1923.
Sergeant B Company 1923-24.
Rifle Team 1923-24.
Red Club 1923-24.

Some one has said that the way to have a friend is to be one. Drescher is the epitome of that little statement. Good, reliable, always plodding along and doing the best that is possible—John has given his efforts to Western's successes.

WILLIAM EINSTEIN
St. Louis, Mo.

Entered Sept. 1920.
Graduated Feb. 1924.
Shrapnel Staff 1922-23-24.
Art Club 1922-23.
Radio Club 1922-23.
Blue Club.

"Willie"—like Benjamin Franklin, is a versatile individual. His speciality is his graduation or rather the completion of his work in the Mid-year "Lucky boy" chorused 275 others. Among his avocations are out-Heebtiling Ben Hecht, out-cartooning Bud Fischer, and studying. Some day we shall again honor the man who has made good.

GEORGE GIBSON, $\Phi\Lambda\Omega$
St. Louis Mo.

Entered Sept. 1921.
Memorial Committee 1922-23-24.
Second Baseball 1923.
Corporal 1922-23.
Sergeant 1923-24.

It is not the matter of having a host of friends—such a thing is impossible. Far better is quality friendship. This quality may be found in Enoch who is a good example of a prime fellow and an all-around good fellow. Spirit, vim, and ginger are lurking behind his happy-go-lucky-smile.

RUSSELL GAUSS, $\Delta\Delta$
St. Louis, Mo.

Entered Sept. 1919.
Recall Staff 1923-24.
Upper Ten 1922-23.
Glee Club 1922-23-24.
Second Football 1923.
Bowling Team 1922.
Corporal A Company 1922-23.
Sergeant A Company 1923.
Second Lieutenant-Adjutant 1924.
Red Club.
Rifle Team 1922-23.

Five years of Western life have been kind to "Russ"—he likes Western and Western likes him. The key to this success—so we have been told—lies in the fact that he believes in sincerity. If you have never cultivated his friendship, you have missed one of the best pals that school life affords.

DAVID L. GRANT, A3
WEBSTER GROVES, Mo.

Entered 8 pt. 1920.
Recall Staff 1923-24.
Corporal A Company 1922-23.
Sergeant A Company 1923-24
Platoon Sergeant A Company.
Red Club 1923-24.

I doubt very much whether we will ever run across as friendly a companion as we have found in Pete. Good solid companionship and a merry grin for all are the chief assets of Grant's.

ROBERT WILLIAM GRONER
LIBERTYVILLE, ILL.

Entered Sept. 1923.
Private B Company 1923-24.
Member Blue Club 1923-24.

"Yes, I know, but what's in a name?" It is difficult to pick out every new man who is going to "make good." Yet we can be sure of Groner. Just opposite from his name, he has gained a record in "Math" which makes him envied by all the school.

MacARTHUR HAGEBUSH, 4-A1
ASHLEY, ILL.

Entered Sept. 1922.
Second Platoon 1923-24.
Blue Club 1923-24.
Student West Point Military Academy 1921-22.

The Class of 1924 feels that it has had a great honor placed upon it—that of having Hagebush as a member. First of all, because he has selected Western as the place of preparation before returning to the "Point," he should be honored. Secondly, because, in the year that he has spent with us, we have learned what is meant when one exclaims, "He is a man with a big character."

EDWIN K. HART, ΔΦΩ, ΑΔ
CHICAGO ILLINOIS.

Entered Sept. 1921.
Upper Ten 1922-23.
Recall Staff 1923-24.
President of Dance Committee 1923-24.
President of The Memorial Committee 1923-24.
President of Delta Phi Omega.
President of the Senior Class 1923-24.
Captain of the Red Club 1923-24.
Captain of the Baseball Team 1922-23-24.
Bowling Team 1922-23-24.
Band Sergeant 1922-23.
First Lieutenant 1923-24.

"Doc"—as he is known by everyone—is a man without whose services we would have been lost. As a barracks chief, as a musician, as a student, and as a friend, he has never been found wanting. To the Recall Staff he has been invaluable. In the years to come after the Class of 1924 has become a memory at Western, we shall expect to hear great things of Hart.

ROBERT L. HATTERSLY
NEW YORK CITY.

Entered Sept. 1921.
Band 1921-22-23-24.
Orchestra 1921-22-23-24.
Red Hot Jazz Band 1923-24.
Corporal Band 1923-24.

When idle moments are given to Bob, he usually gives them over to his saxophone. Ted Lewis has a close second in Bob who has given three years of his time to the band and the orchestra. Next year, so I hear, will find him at Williams.

HARRY J. HEGWEIN.
St. Louis, Mo.

Entered 1921.
Second Platoon 1921-22.
Fourth Platoon 1923-24.
Corporal 1923-24.
Radio Club 1922.
First Aid Squad 1921.
Red Club 1923-24.

Sometimes in the hurry and hustle of life, we are prone to pass by and not get the real worth of our acquaintances. Some people, as it were, demand a deeper scrutiny. Such a man is Hegwein. There is a willingness, a sincerity, and a loyalty in this friend, which are worthy of cultivation.

THEODORE A. HORMAN.
St. Louis, Mo.

Entered 1922.
Shrapnel Staff 1923-24.
Recall Staff 1923-24.
Rinkeydink Football Team 1923.
Rinkeydink Basketball Team 1923-24.
Upper Ten 1923.
Senior stunt 1924.

Here we have the boy wonder!! Size has been no hindrance to "Teddy" in his proving that he is a mighty smart fellow. Throughout his career he has been recognized as a good, conscientious worker. Here's to you!!

CHARLES S. HOKE
MONTERREY, N. L. MEXICO.

Entered Sept. 1920.
Member of the Rifle Team 1922-23.
Member of Second Platoon.
Radio Club 1922-23.

After an absence our friend Charlie returns to the fold of 1924. We are only too glad to welcome him to our class because his name supplies the lack of an electrical wizard. In the future years we'll be glad to say, "Yes, the great inventor was a classmate of mine at W. M. A."

JOHN IRISH, Δ44
LINCOLN, ILLINOIS.

Entered Sept. 1919.
First Platoon Co. "A."
Signal Detachment.
Red Club 1923-24.

In the years intervening between 1919 and 1924, Irish has been with us. Yet, somehow I am at a loss to catalogue him exactly. Last year he was unable to graduate with his class because of illness. Thus the class of 1924 welcomes him into the fold.

RUPERT KINSLOE.
St. Louis, Mo.

Entered Sept. 1922.
Upper Ten 1922-23.
Swimming Team 1922-23.
Track Team 1922-23-24.
Blue Club 1923-24.

"Rup" is termed a "quiet fellow." True it is that we don't hear him say very much. Yet, when we get in the vicinity of the swimming pool, we discover that Rup is a man of action. His endurance and fight have been the outstanding qualities of his swimming activities.

ADAM KISSNER
St. Louis, Mo.

Entered Feb. 1922.
Second Basketball 1922-23.
Second Baseball 1922-23.
One Pounders 1922-23.
Band 1922-23-24.
Orchestra 1922-23-24.
Jazz Band 1923-24.
Blue Club 1923-24.

If you want a fellow, a real sure-enough fellow, here is the one to be selected. To find one more human and more natural would be an endless task. His good-natured manner helps him to be human; his clarinet to be natural.

LAWRENCE JACOBSON
St. Louis, Mo.

Entered Sept. 1920.
Shrapnel Staff 1921-22-23-24.
Radio Club 1922-23.
Blue Club 1923-24.
Corporal A Company 1923-24.

Whenever we think of the jokes, we think of Jake. Mistake me not gentle reader, because Jake has become the undisputed joke-editor for the Shrapnel—a position which he has ably filled for the last two years. In years to come—should I predict—he will no doubt become the official editor of College Humor or—perhaps—??? Well, I shall wait and see whether my "hunch" comes true.

JOHN LYNN KNAPP, $\Delta\S$, $\Delta\Delta$
FORT WORTH, TEXAS.

Entered Sept. 1919.
Shrapnel Staff 1923-24.
Recall Staff 1923-24.
Mandolin Club 1922-23.
Second Football 1921-22.
First Football 1923-24.
Track 1924.
Bowling Team 1921-22-23.
Corporal 1921-22.
Second Lieutenant 1923-24.

Kuapp is another one of the "Old School" type of cadets. Five years at Western, a record in athletics, and literary work have added more laurels to his name.

WILLIAM KRAPER
MIAMI, OKLAHOMA.

Entered Sept. 1919.
Corporal B Company 1922-23.
Color Sergeant B Company 1923-24.
Blue Club 1923-24.
Rifle Team 1923-24.

If anyone asks you about this chap, tell them that he is a mighty fine fellow and a conscientious worker. Being another of the four-year men, he has gained the distinction of the title—"a man of the old school."

BAILEY LaPORTE, $\Delta\S$, $\Delta\Delta$
FLORIA, ILLINOIS.

Entered Sept. 1920.
Second Baseball 1922-23.
Second Basketball 1922-23.
First Basketball 1923-24.
Tennis Finals 1923.
Blue Club 1923-24.
Sergeant B Company 1923-24.

Cruz and Bailey are names that are often spoken in one breath. Somehow there is an inseparableness which seems to demand a constant unity among these friends. Yet, to most of us, Bailey will be remembered for his work on the basketball court where he has proved that he is a man of the hour.

NORMAN MALDANER, $\Phi\Omega$, $\Delta\Delta$
SPRINGFIELD, ILLINOIS.

Entered Sept. 1921.
Gold Scholarship Medal 1921-22.
Second Basketball 1922.
First Baseball 1922.
Second Football 1922.
First Basketball 1923.
First Football 1923.
Platoon Sergeant 4th Platoon 1922-23.
Second Lieutenant 1st Platoon 1923-24.
Honorable mention Maunul of Arms Competition 1921.
Mandolin Club 1922-23.
Glee Club 1923-24.
Shrapnel Staff 1921-22-23.
Rifle Team 1922-23.

Look over this record. Isn't it fit for a prince? Well Red Maldaner is just the man for the honor. Reliability spelled backwards and forwards is this man's second name. Truly a man worth while, and a fellow ever to be remembered in this school.

HUGHIE LOUDON
CHICAGO, ILL.

Entered Sept. 1922.
Bowling Champion 1922-23.
Track Team 1923-24.
Second Football 1923.
Blue Club 1923-24.

The Year 1922 brought two things to Western—one was the Song "Chicago, Chicago, That Toddling Town," the other—was London. Both the song and the boy seem to be synonymous—rhythmically speaking. On the track or in the bowling alley he has proved his worth; in the drawing room or on the dance floor he is termed "the incomparable."

RALPH M. McDERMID, $\Phi\Omega$, $\Delta\Delta$
GLENCOE, ILL.

Entered Sept. 1921.
First Football 1922-23.
Shrapnel Staff.
One Pounders 1923-24.
Track 1924.
Baseball 1924.
Swimming 1924.
Captain Football 1923.

Many men have entered the Old School; many have entered into the school life and into the hearts of their associates. In the three years in which "Mac" has been with us, we have learned to know him as "the big boy with a lot of grit." In his year he answered the emergency call to the Captaincy of the 1923 Football Team and led them to victory.

EDWARD S. MARSHALL
ST. LOUIS, MO.

Entered Sept. 1922.
Red Club 1923-24.
Corporal 1923-24.
Section Commander—37 M. M. Guns.

You readers are right in thinking that the writing of a score or so of these "personals" is not an easy task. Yet it is men like Ted that make it a little easier for the man behind the pen. I'm not handing Marshall any bouquets when I say that I could write a few pages about him. A hardworker and a man with a personality—he has made a fine name for himself among the fellows and in his scholastic activities. Best of luck to him.

CARROL S. MASTIN
HUNTSVILLE, ALABAMA.

Entered Sept. 1923.
Member A Company 1923-24.
Blue Club 1923-24.

No one will forget the day when we heard someone answer, "heh." Somehow there was a gentle southern atmosphere which wafted itself upon the Western horizon. As a rule he is a chap of whom we see very little—possibly because he sticks to his own business (an art that we admire very much).

SAMUEL B. MEEK
WARREN, ARKANSAS.

Entered Sept. 1923.
Member "B" Company 1923-24.
Blue Club 1923-24.

Here is another Southerner who has helped to swell the ranks of the Class of 1924. But do not mistake us. Meek is a fellow who has gained respect and admiration from his associates. Whenever I think of Meek, I am reminded of that phrase from Emerson—"there is something finer in the man than anything that he has said."

Pat is one of those yearlings that stand out in spite of their shortness of service. The reason lies in the fact that Pat is reliable. He has been the man upon whom we could depend in football, basketball—and lastly in friendship. In scholastic work, from "Math" down to "habla espanol" he has proved that good athletes are not "dumbbells."

JACK MOSES
CHICAGO, ILL.

Entered Sept. 1923.

This chap decided to join us rather late in the year, yet we are very glad that he did for he will increase the percentage of those who make good from the Class of 1924. If there are those who doubt the correctness of our judgment, let them keep an eye on Moses—he'll be a leader.

"G'way niggah. 'Taint nothing but the truth." Barbaristic as it may sound, it's just our old friend Ritchie. And should I add—Friend is the word. Four years of Western life have given Walter the value of many friendships. His presence at the Assembly has given us a good, sincere pal—whether that pal be as an officer, classmate, or fraternity brother.

Vogel is another one of the Old Time School who has proved his worth in almost every department of W. M. A. Activities. His record as a student, officer, and athlete is one to be envied. To him was given one of the greatest tasks—the editorship of this year's RECALL. If you like the book which no doubt you will, don't forget to tell the editor—because you know "editors are only human."

In this hour of farewell—when each one is thinking of the past, present, and future—the members of the Senior Class give pause to reflect upon the sincere friendship and companionship which the knowing of Sergeant Perry evidenced. As his leaving the U. Football Resume

FROM every standpoint the Western Military Academy 1923 football season was a success. When the call for men came, Captain Garetson found that he had only three letter men—Kitchie, McDermid, and Thorpe—who would serve as a nucleus for the fighting team of '23. Yet, in spite of this misfortune, a number of new men responded and gave promise of being good material. The team, starting out like a whirlwind, improved with every contest so that the end of the season Western was able to claim six victories out of the ten games. In every case, except one, our defeat came from a college team.

Such an excellent showing was the outcome of three causes: First, the untiring efforts and the good coaching of Capt. Garetson; second, Ralph McDermid, captain of the team; third, the fighting spirit which has always characterized Western teams. To the below mentioned players recognition should be given.

CAPT. RALPH McDERMID—L. T.

A real captain and a fine leader. Very seldom did our opponents get through his tackle. He was the mainstay of the line. Whenever open—a hole in the line, woe to the opponent who got in his way. His absence next year will be regretted by Western; his presence on a college team will be a valuable asset.

PAT. MURPHY—F. B.

Pat was the hard line buckler who was to be called upon whenever a few yards were needed. Few plays came through him on the defense. Western's success and Pat are synonymous.

(RED) NORMAN MALDANER—Q. B.

Shall I term him "the brains of the team"? To him was given the job of displaying the greatest fighting spirit and the abnormal amount of "pep." Now and then for an innovation he starred as a kicker and did some end running.

(WASH.) WASHINGTON SCHIFFER—H. B.

He was our half-back—not only in name but in reality and "actionality". Whenever we needed an extra touchdown, the ball was given the Wash.

ANGEL TORRES—H. B.

Torres was one of the new men who proved that he had the true fighting spirit. Starting out slowly at the beginning, he developed in every contest until at the end of the season he proved to be one of the strong factors in the backfield.

(WILLIE) WILLIAM WUNDERLICH—C.

Willie developed into the stellar center. Always on the job and active in every play, he scored as a "bear" on the offensive and "a stone wall" on the defense.

OTTO BOSS—L. E.

From the crown of his fiery hair to the tips of his toes, radiated the true fighting spirit. Only one year on the Western is to be regretted by us because he proved to be the kind of a man that is always needed to make the team a success.

TED McDANIELS—Q. B.

Here is one of the best broken field runners ever developed at Western. Although he was seriously handicapped by an injury which necessitated his absence from part of the games, he made up for this in the games in which he played.

RUDOLFO CRUZ—E.

In defensive plays he displayed his mettle; in offensive plays he proved the value of this mettle. Full of grit and in the middle of every play, Cruz gave his "all" to his school.

WILLIAM FLYNN—E.

An Irishman and football prove to be a good combination. Being only a "sub" on this year's team, Flynn has a chance to again show that Irish bulldog tenacity which characterized his work in 1923.

NELSON LADD—R. G.

His equal has never been found. No doubt, a very broad statement, yet it expresses my sentiments. His pep, his conscientiousness, and his fighting spirit have been influential in his election as captain of the 1924 W. M. A. Football Team. "Good luck to you and the boys, Ladd!!"

MERLE BOGGIANO—T.

Bozzie was the little terror to all of the opposing "backs." No game was complete without him; he was not content without playing the complete game.

BERNARD KEARNS—L. E.

He was just the "regular" end who changed the "regularity" by being in every play. Need I say that the end that started around his end position was "in for a loss."

(DICK) RICHARD JOHNSTON—G.

Here is one of the men who will be a valuable man for next year. His hard work, this year, and his thoroughness at guard make him eligible for next year's team.

CLARENCE RAGSDALE—G.

A "sub" who gives promise of even greater things next year.

WILLIAM CLYMER—G.

Commencement will claim another one of the team's strong players. Either defense or offensive plays were guarded well by him.

MACK MARTIN—H. B.

He was the tackler—yet he seemed to be a specialist at his work. We shall look forward to his work next year.

(SNAPPY) LYNN-KNAPP—T.

Snappy was the "old faithful". At practice, in the game, or making his tackle he "was there."

PERSONAL COMMENTS

- "Red" Maldaner—One of the best guards that Western has ever seen. The one-ery of the all of the opponents was "Get that Red-Head." His favorite stunt was to tilt a ringer when the score was tied. A senior.
- "Spike" Belding—Here may be found the spirit of the team. His trick of the trade was to make friends with all of the opposing centers and then out-play them. His caging and his free throws were the means of downfall for our enemies. A senior.
- "Pat" Murphy—Western's All Mississippi Valley Interscholastic Guard is the title given to this man. Yet such an honor won't turn his head. Never during the season, did he lose his head long enough to allow his opponent to make many baskets. Some lucky college will acquire this senior.
- "Ted" McDaniels—All Mississippi Valley Forward. Playing a fast game, interspersed with some of the best demonstrations of dribbling. Mac has won a name and fame for himself and Western. A junior.
- "Bobbie" Brooks—Along with fast playing and good guarding goes the demand for a maker of points. Such a man was Bobbie. To him is given the title—"Our high point getter." After his graduation from Western may he ever be a high point getter.
- "Mex" Martinez—Evidence from an authority is the most valuable evidence which one is able to quote. Thus I am pleased to quote the words of the Washington U coach who said, "Martinez is one of the most promising players that I have seen this season. His ability to throw baskets helped us to win the M. V. I Championship and this same ability will help us next year. A junior.
- Stevenson, A.—"Potential Energy" is the new nick-name given to "Stevie." During the season he was always ready to enter into the game—anytime, any place, anywhere. A senior.
- Howell—Here's to one of our new men. His work on the floor was indicative of greater things in the seasons to come.
- Cruz, R.—Here's to the Captain of the 1924 winning team. In the years in which we have known Cruz, we have learned to know a hard fighter. Graduation will claim him.
- Capt. Holmes: Here's to the best coach. Good luck to you.

WASHINGTON U TOURNAMENT

The first game against Yeatman saw Western winning with more or less ease. Then against Roanoke, the team had a comparatively easy time; against Cleveland we won after an over-time period—two points representing the margin of the victory. The final St. Louis High School was eliminated when Central was defeated by W. M. A. The final and well-earned victory was over Mt. Vernon. The 19-14 score indicates the closely fought game that it was, and the end of a glorious season.

A Track Review In Three Tenses

The Past

At the time of THE 1923 RECALL'S going to press, the editor was unable to give any definite information as to the status of the Track Team. Somehow or other the spirit of Spring, the thrill of approaching commencement, and the fear of final examination combine to over cloud the spring athletic contests. Yet, one should not be deceived into believing that these sports are neither supported by the student body nor given the proper attention by the participants. Western's showing last year proved that we were not asleep. Although every meet did not result in a victory for the Blue and Red, yet, nevertheless, we made some gains and several good records. Our loss to the Illinois Champions—Staunton—and to Carlinville High School was compensated by our victory over McKendree, Principia, and Shurtliff Colleges. Thus in the season of 1923 our success was not outstanding but commendable.

The Present

Again our outlook for an auspicious season on the cinder path is dimmed by uncertainty. With only two letter men, who will serve as a nucleus, Captain Garetson has a problem similar to the one which confronted him last Fall—the problem of building a winning team from new material. We may feel assured that if Captain is given the proper support by the men he will produce a winning team.

The Future

As we look over the prospective list of track material, we feel certain that some of the men give promise of great things.

Wash Schiffer—our javelin winner of last year again promises to capture a first place and to break another record. Wash is also training for the sprints.

Louden—Here is a man who does not give any time to other athletics, consequently his work in the 100 and the 440 yard dashes should receive all of the extra vim which he does not give to other phases of athletics.

Brooks—Bobby's training under Capt. Wallace last year should be evidence in his pole-vaulting this year. He has been training for the standing and the running broad jump.

Candy—Our loss of Hall seems to be requited by our gaining of a prospective star. The form and the quality shown thus far in his clearing the bar in the high jump bespeak a quality man.

M. Martin—Previous years of faithful work on the track predict a good reliable man in Martin. His work in the sprints should be successful.

Wunderlich, Knapp, McDermid—are planning to hurl the discs and put the shot far, far, away. With the training of last year and some good efforts this year, they should be able to add a few points for us.

First Baseball Team, 1924

Top Row—CAPT. HOLMES (COACH) TORRES, MALDANER, WOOD, MARTINEZ, M. RITCHIE, ORTHWEIN.
Lower Row—KORACH, CRUZ, R. MCDANIELS, HART (CAPT.), ST. JOHN, M. ORONI.

Baseball Forecast

CAPTAIN Holmes' prize "miners"—or perhaps a few more will soon be cavorting around the old diamond while the enthusiastic "fans" will pace the diamond 'round, give a few shouts, promise sudden death to the "ump," and comment on what would or should have been.

The opening day is not far removed. The lineup for 1924 contains many familiar faces, all of which have been stamped with the certification of favorableness.

"Ted" McDaniels, behind the log, needs no introduction to Western men, as he has shown his ability not only in the other phases of athletics but also in baseball as well. Success to you!!

Maldaner or Wood—perhaps Torres, A. will be found in the box. Red's performance, as well as that of his co-partners, will be something that most of us will be anxious to watch, because his work usually turns out very promising for the home team but very discouraging for the visitors. This becomes true whenever he "catches them asleep at the switch" and "whips" a quick one over for a called strike.

Either Belding or Martinez (M) at first and Ritchie at the keystone station will be on hand in order "to line them out" into the deep, deep grass, that decorates the outer garden.

Hart, our "whiz" at short and the 1924 Captain will be back at the infield "scoopin'-em-up" and making the opposition keep their weather eyes "peeled" at all times if they get the edge.

St. John—a new member of the team, and one who I hear is very good—will be a valuable man at the "hot corner." His ability in this sport has become well recognized. Let us look for some wonders.

In the region of left field, Moroni will cause trouble for many a budding hope. Here is a new man with a good reputation to maintain and a better one to establish.

Korach, Belding, and Orthwein will take turns in covering the centerfield territory whenever they are not too busy circling the bases.

Stevenson (A) or Ruddle Cruz in the sunfield at right will bid for high honors in this position.

This good reliable lineup plus an interesting schedule should prove that the 1924 season will be one of the best—not only from the standpoint of good playing and victories won, but also from the position of Corps enthusiasm.

The Schedule

April 5—Wood River	May 17—Concordia
April 12—Eden Seminary	May 24—E. St. Louis
April 26—Chaminade	May 28—Principia
May 3—Eden Seminary	May 31—Kenrick
May 10—Principia	June 4—Soldan
May 14—Chaminade	June 7—McKendree College

Second Football Team, 1923

As you all know, in order to have a good varsity, there must be a reliable Second Team. Such a team we were fortunate in having. A more reliable squad with plenty of punch and go we have never seen. Much credit for their good work and reliability should go to Capt. McLaughlin who coached them. Our hats are off to you, men, because you were to the 1923 First Teamers what the fourth wheel is to the wagon.

Kadet Kalender

(“From ‘First Call’ to ‘The RECALL.’”)

September

“And lo! as through the western pines, on meadow, stream and pond, Flame the red radiance of a sky, set all afire beyond.”

- Sept. 19—School opens. New faces, new teachers, new barracks (? and a new schedule.
Sept. 20—Classes begin—Capt. Buck and Leurig begin the usual assignments. No change.
Sept. 21—Faculty wives entertain the Seniors. Whoopee—is ‘nt it grand to be so highup.
Sept. 22—Juniors play dominoes and jack-straws. A good time was had by all. As yet, I’ve had no time for homesick-ness.
Sept. 23—Church squads, visiting parents and-----???, letter writing and a little study hall make up the Day of Rest.
Sept. 24—Football reaps the first of its casualties—St. John and LaMarr a la bandage.
Sept. 29—The first day in which I’ve had the chance to write. Staunton wins from us 7-0.

October

*“The summer tresses of the trees are gone,
The woods of autumn all around our vale
Have put their glory on.”*

- Oct. 6—Western wins from E. St. Louis 6-0. First Platoon embarks for Chautauqua.
Oct. 7—First military ceremony of the year. During the course of the afternoon the First platoon returned—tired but happy—you know how they get that way.
Oct. 13—Western wins from Central H. S. (St. Louis) 2-0. W. M. A. Seconds 40—Troy 0. Looks like winning team—eh boy? Second platoon Week-ends at Rustie Lodge.
Oct. 14—More church squads. Finger-nail inspection is the latest. “Have you a little file in your home?”
Oct. 17—Half holiday. Picture show, banana splits, and indigestion.
Oct. 20—Fourth Platoon sets sail for the The Rendezvous. Raincoats and umbrellas ordered on. Western tallies up a 65-0 score against Mt. Olive. The Seconds hold McKendree Seconds 0-0. Not so bad? Red and Blue Club form for a year’s battle. Bets are now open.
Oct. 21—A day of appointment and disappointment. Commissions are given.
Oct. 22—Lieut. Vogel is elected Editor-In-Chief of the RECALL. Best of luck for the best publication ever.
Oct. 27—Cleveland H. S. 0—Western 6. Third Platoon goes on its outing.
Oct. 31—Hallowe’en—jazz band aids digestion; a bewitching dinner awaits us; and weird pranks fill in the spare moments. Three Cheers!!!

Kadet Kalender

November

*"The leaves are swept from the branches;
But the living buds are there,
With folded flower and foliage
To sprout in a kinder air."*

- Nov. 1—Football team in hard workout prior to the Monday game.
Nov. 2—Rifle team holds its first practice.
Nov. 5—Principia came, saw and conquered 31-0.
Nov. 7—W. M. A. Seconds 0—Cathedral H. S. 0. Exams begin—wide-eyed amazement and intelligence (?)
Nov. 8—Capt. Lenrig gives his usual "simple" questions.
Nov. 10—The Alton Western Game. Did we win? Yes, Yes 12 3. Everyone tired, hoarse, and stiff, yet we do the "light fantastic." Post-Jubilee Hop, Furlongs.
Nov. 11—Non-Coms appointed.
Nov. 17—Day of Defeat. W. M. A. 0—McKendree College 19. Seconds 6—Principia Seconds 12.
Nov. 19—Football men receive their new sweaters.
Nov. 24—Rinkeydinks 6—Principia 0. Sweet Revenge!!! Furlough for second group.
Nov. 29—Thanksgiving and rain. Did you swim out to the game? W. M. A. 0—Blackburn 0. Rinkeydink 6—Principia 0. Musical in the evening.

December

*"This is the month, and this the happy morn
Wherein the Son of Heaven's Eternal King
Of wedded maid and Virgin born."*

- Dec. 1—The Red Club enjoys a Lower Alton Privilege. How many more days? Post-Thanksgiving Day Hop, helps to take our minds off the few remaining days.
Dec. 3—Basket ball begins with three old letter men.
Dec. 8—W. M. A. 24—Wood River 10. Here we are back in the old form.
Dec. 15—Matinee Dance.
Dec. 18—Exams hold sway. Gosh it's hard to think of Algebra, Latin and Rhet., when in two more days I'll be far, far away.
Dec. 19—Another day brings us nearer home. Some of the fellows leave. Merry Christmas.
Dec. 20—Now that all of the shoe lines have been rolled up and hung on the peg, I'll have nothing to do until next year. To-morrow I'll sleep until 1 P. M.

January

*"All day the gusty north wind bore
The loosing drift its breath before."*

- Jan. 3—Back again. Teachers appear with assignments long enough to kill us.
- Jan. 4—Lied myself to the not-too-far-distant lake and indulged in some good skating.
As you know winter sports at W. M. A. are good whenever Mr. Weather Man is on the job.
- Jan. 13—Alpha Delta is organized. Was most afraid that the cherished hope of the Class of 1923 was to pass on to the dead.
- Jan. 16—First snow of the year causes Bill Rhear's Ridge to become very popular.
- Jan. 19—Matinee Dance becomes Snow-Bound. A few faithfuls brave the weather, but many stay away.
- Jan. 30—The inter-platoon bowling tournament begins. Things begin to look like great activity.

February

*"For him her Old-World moulds aside she threw
And choosing sweet clay from the breast
Of the unexhausted West
With staff untainted shaped a hero new."*

- Feb. 2—Chew, Boss, and Einstein leave. Some people are naturally lucky. When Commencement Time comes around, they will return for their "sheep-skins." Western-Chaminade game results in a 40-30 victory for us. Looks like a winning team—eh boy?
- Feb. 4—Red Club enjoys a banquet. Good food, good talks, and a good time was enjoyed by all.
- Feb. 9—W. M. A. 25—Principia 19; Western Seconds 23—Principia Seconds 17. We're Off! Now watch us.
- Feb. 10—Furloughs begin today.
- Feb. 16—Western begins its picture shows. Tom Mix in "Watch My Suoike," pleases the endot corps. Encore! Encore!!
- Feb. 21—Another term has rolled around. Where the time goes no one seems to know. There was a time at Western when the cadets counted the days. But it seems that we are so busy that we don't have the time to get homesick etc, etc.
- Feb. 22—Washington Birthday Holiday.
1. Big Feed—large, generous, and good. Hooray for Mrs. Murphy—she's certainly there when it comes to preparing for special occasions.
 2. Basketball game. W. M. A. 36—E. St. Louis 12.
 3. Musical Concert. Hart appears as a director.
- Feb. 23—Lower Alton privilege. Washington Birthday Formal.

March

*"The day is cold, and dark, and dreary;
The vine still clings to the withering wall,
It rains, and the wind is never weary,
And the day is dark and dreary."*

- Mch. 1—March comes in like a lamb. Beware of things done up in sheep's clothing—sheep-skin coats alias "lumberman's coats, sheepish grins, and sheep's eyes. "All we like sheep (sheiks) have gone astray."
- Mch. 2—Famous lines of the day—"That will be a fine addition for the year-book."
- Mch. 8—Belding Dysart, and McDaniels appointed Sergeants. Senior Lit. Class goes to see Hamlet. Ritchie decides that the "uplift is too much."
- Mch. 16—Red and Blues are again at war. Indoor baseball game results in a Red Victory 11-7.
- Mch. 13—Washington U. Tournament begins; Western begins to show the world how and why it is done in basketball. Western defeats Yeatman (St. Louis) H. 8, 25 18.
- Mch. 14—Western wins over Roanoke (Ill.) H. 8, 23-14.
- Mch. 15—Cleveland is downed by us 20-22.
- Mch. 16—A day of rest for the team and my excited spirit.
- Mch. 17—The last long mile to victory. Western 19—Central (St. Louis) H. 8, 17.
- Championship game—W. M. A. 19—Mt. Vernon 13.
- Famous lines—Oh Boy!! Ain't (pardon Capt. Leurig) it a grand and glorious feelin'?"
- Mch. 18—Big celebration in chapel. Each member makes his final bow to the school and basketball. Cruz, R., Stevenson, Belding, Maldauer, Brooks, and Murphy leave us in June.
- Mch. 19—Uptown, picture show, and banana splits. No news except that a month from now is Easter.
- Mch. 20—Famous thoughts—To get the two days extra at Easter.
- Famous last lines—The saddest words of tongue or pen—it might have been"1??"
- Mch. 21—The first day of Spring comes in with snow flakes. Maldauer sees the picture of a robin and decides that he hears the call of the diamond—baseball.
- Mch. 22—Moving picture show. Harold Lloyd tells how $1,000 may be earned.
- Mch. 23—Rifle scores are announced; visitors arrive; and I am thinking of the few remaining days.
- Mch. 27—Motion picture—The Fighting Blade. Thrills, thrills, thrills.
- Mch. 29—Big vaudeville stunt. DeMint appears in the lime light.

April

*"And freshened boughs, and warm, upspringing grass;
And waters loosened from the winter cold
And still the song of reawakened truth
Is urging on, that tho the snow days pass
And nature grows young, yet men—and I grow old."*

- Apr. 5—Matinee dance, baseball game, and a picture show. Western wins third in Washington U. swimming meet. Not so bad—eh?
- Apr. 10. RECALL pictures and Mr. Kopp hold sway.
- Apr. 11—The leading question of the day—"Will I get the two days?"
- Seniors bury themselves in analytical outlines.
- Apr. 12—Senior stunt helps to drive away the thoughts of the approaching "exams."
- Apr. 13—Machine-gun competition "fills in" on Sunday.
- Apr. 14—Just one more day until the "Terrible" are upon us.
- Apr. 15—Pre-Easter Exams fall upon us like the plague of locusts.
- Apr. 17—"The saddest words of tongue or pen—"well anyway its something like all that glitters is not gold.
- Apr. 18—Famous cartoons—When a feller needs a friend!!
- I just clench my fists and remember that the sorrows that are hardest to bear are those that never come.
- Apr. 19—Homeward bound!!
- Apr. 21—School re-opens—and just so many more. Seniors honors announced.
- Apr. 22—The Recall goes to press. June 5th should find us happy.

Seven Years Later

The time was 1931; the place was Chicago—that labyrinth of cosmopolitanism where anything might happen to anyone at anytime. To be more definite the place was that famous Boul Mich—that deplorable street, a luxurious couch of a street, in which the late October afternoon lolled like a gaudy sybarite. Hither and thither the long procession of pedestrians move along—they walk, walk, walk. Some are hurried; some are flurried; others are worried. In this seething mass of afternoon squanderers, two men have collided. The first, a well dressed man in light gray top coat, tan shoes and spats is a well known composer; the other, an equally prosperous looking gentleman but a little more subdued in his attire, is no other than a great diplomatic leader who has carefully climbed the ladder of law. There was a moment of apologetic exchanges, then, as I drew nearer I heard the following conversation as each man forgot his dignity, his position, and the passing throng of Boulevardites.

"Nigger Ritchie!!"

"Doe Hart!!"

Undoubtedly they had been schoolmates, possibly fraternity brothers, or even more. I, too, an interested bystander of the human race edged my way to the doorway of the Chicago Athletic Club and followed the two into the building.

"Well, Well, Nig, old man how goes it?"

"Mighty fine. How's everything in the big city? Let me congratulate you on your success as a great composer."

"Forget it, forget it. But tell me what brings you here? Where have you been any way? Come on with the news of the last seven years."

"Well Doe, you see as I was coming to Chicago from Warren I couldn't resist stopping off at the ol' school in order to give the glad hand to Ralph, the boys and wield a good broom if necessary. But would you believe it I missed seeing them because they were at Chautauqua."

"Ha! Ha! don't jolly me so, Nigger. Will you ever forget our jaunts to that primitive village. I wonder whether those boys will have as much fun as we had back in the days of 1923-24?"

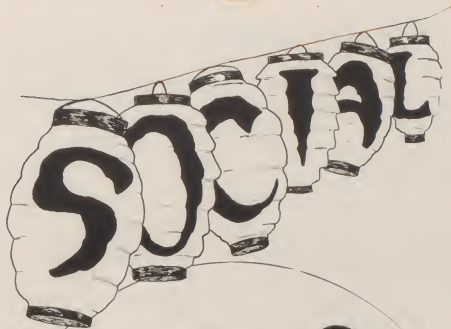

"Do you remember the little old train with its sea-going backs of ears that so reminded me of my aboriginal home in Camden? The weed bedecked railroad tracks which were annually used whenever the cadets stormed the village and the old wooden 'Springs' Hotel."

"Fried chicken, home-made biscuits, and honey-food fit for the Gods—was sheltered within those wooden walls. Shall I ever forget how I ate and ate after one of those hikes to Grafton or to Elsa with Captain Holmes?"

"Nothing like it, boy!! Why 'Doe' we just seemed to live from one great experience to the other. The evening with its camp fire, ghost stories, songs, and stunts was usually climaxed with the snipe hunt or a good boxing bout in which Hart was winner over McDermid."

Undoubtedly this was some kind of joke, because both men laughed heartily and enforced their merriment by several slaps upon each other's backs.

"Well Ritchie, Old war-horse, I'm turning over the keys of the city to you. Let's go in and see what the chef has prepared. I hear that he has some good sirloin for today. With plenty of good food let us forget the time and recall the other interesting events of those Old Western days."

Sat. LEAF FROM THE DIARY OF THE "SUB-DEB."

Nov. 19, 1923.—"Western Victory Formal was a supreme success. The afternoon victory in football, over Alton, added enormous amount of pep. One dance seemed to glide into the next. The most heavenly dresses, the grandest music, and the most divine dancers. S'wonderful. Can scarcely wait until the "bids" for the next one to appear."

Sat. LEAF FROM THE DIARY OF A CHAPERON.

Dec. 2 1923.—"Acted as a chaperon at the Western Thanksgiving Formal. Colonel Eaton and Mrs. Garetson led the Grand March—in which more than two hundred couples participated. The scene was entrancing. Soon the whole gymnasium was one whirl of cadet grey and fine color from the costumes of the gay young dancers. A program of fourteen dances with special favor dances and a dinner dance made up the course of the evening. The whole affair seemed to radiate the Western hospitality which is so well known. Again I shall look forward to another pleasant evening among the young people."

Sat. LEAF FROM THE MEMORY BOOK OF A CADET.

Feb. 23, 1924.—Washington Birthday Dance date with N. H.—Must tell you right now, she's a wonder at dancing. A good time? Well just let Max Newby get started on the piano and see whether you have a good time. Well, Max and his Melody Makers were up to their old tricks, consequently the result was more than favorable. The only thing that spoils the evening is the trumpeter—who insists upon being on time. Recall comes only too soon. Let's see,—how many more days until the next one? Visitors Day!! Oh Boy!!

Matinee Dance Impressions

CIVILIZATIONS have risen, fallen, and risen again. Years have come and gone. Yet, in spite of all, matinee dances hold first place in my heart. There is something in those two or three hours of innocent amusement which gives me a greater thrill than any which I could receive from any of the far more formal evening affairs. Possibly the solution lies in the fact that company manners are safely tucked away—or should I say as far as discretion and military etiquette will permit and that everyone enjoys himself. Yet on closer investigation I find that I have become a greater devotee of Jazz. To me the conventional umpah ump of the trombone, the screech, wail and moan of the clarinet the subdued wail of the cornet—muffled with a wooden gag in its mouth—becomes my somewhat ultra-modern spirit. The melody of jazz, the tinpan ghosts of Chopin Tchaikowsky, Old Black Joe, and Liszt come whinnying out from these instruments. To off-set this lambasting, the drums, piano, and violin cast over all a fluttering drape; the saxophone gurgles a sonorous complaint. One piece ends and we applaud; Another piece begins and we exchange courtesies and again fulfill our mission of dancing. Whang! Bang! An overwhelming applause. An encore begins as I steer my partner thru the whirling, revolving, and rocking forms to the spot of safety—the punch bowl. And so on and on we continue thru the afternoon—living, breathing, and enjoying rhythm and syncopation. Then a blast, a discord, a ghastly sneer of brass—the trumpeter of the guard has brought our fantasy to an end. We shout good-bye. There are promises to write, promises to come to the parade, promises which were never made to be. Again the bugle warns the approaching of Call-To-Quarters. Again the brass master of ceremonies leers at us like a satyr. Tomorrow it will show us that it is the master supreme.

Hallowe'en

SAY, Skinnie—howyd you like the witchcraft celebration? Wasn't it the keenest affair? Wasn't the food par excellent?

"Food fit for the gods I should say. That steak tasted like the Ritz and the shoe string potatoes were without comparison. As you know the way to boy's heart is thru his stomach. Well, you see Mrs. Murphy has the right idea."

This is just an example of the conversation that one might hear as he passed along any portion of the Plateau—the morning after the night before—Hallowe'en. Yet let the old adage—"Truth is stranger than fiction" go hang because I'm going to tell the truth—strange as it may be. "Did not the Jazz Band dressed" fit to kill "go the limit" with good melody; did not the old mess hall assume a new kind of appearance for the festive occasion? What is life without an evening minus study hall? An evening in the drill hall. Here the true spirit of the times dominated. Volley ball, tug-of-war, stunts, and last but not least—the vaudeville "uplift." Nine-thirty was an early hour that evening. Where the time went I should like to know. Yet why should one mix good times with the thoughts of time. To be brief—the stunt was "right there."

Thanksgiving Dinner Party

THE day was raw, dim, and gusty. The steadily falling rain seemed to indicate that Old Jupiter Pluvius had decided against us. Finally Dame Fortune smiled and Mrs. Murphy did the rest. When the raging elements were at their worst, Thanksgiving dinner appeared at its best. Do you not agree, when you look at

Chautauqua

1923 R. O. T. C. Camp Camp Custer, Mich.

THE R. O. T. C. Camp opened June 14th and lasted until July 26th. Six Western men registered in the first day—Hard, Schmidt, K., Raith, R., Schiffer, Karr, and Vogel. Coming from St. Louis together, they struck Camp about the same time. Soon they were assigned to companies and busy getting into their uniforms and equipment. They were all enrolled for the advanced course. Instruction began next day at seven o'clock. From that hour until noon a varied program was carried out. In the afternoons—except Wednesdays, and Saturdays, half holidays, military instruction was continued. On holidays students were permitted to go to Battle Creek or visit some of the nearby lakes. Toward evening good moving pictures, boxing, or vaudeville were means of diversion at the Camp Liberty Theatre. Each branch of the service represented at the R. O. T. C. took turns in sponsoring the weekly dance held at the Hostess House. For those who could not find full satisfaction in such pleasures the road to Battle Creek was short, Gull Lake was not far distant, and Kalamazoo could be reached after a slightly longer ride. Transportation was the only prerequisite to extensive travel. The W. M. A. men, by purchasing a Ford, solved the problem. Although the car had perhaps seen better days, it, nevertheless, served its purpose. They not only used it in and about Camp Custer, but ventured a return trip in it to St. Louis.

Western's contingent returned home hale and hearty. Vogel, Schiffer, and Raith had demonstrated their prowess in shooting. Each man brought back either a pistol or a rifle medal. Hard was troubled with tonsillitis while in camp, but, after a short stay in the hospital, fully recovered. Karr and Schmidt were inseparable. They were reputed to have had many adventures of interest before they finished their six weeks at camp and journeyed homeward.

Marksmanship

THE year of 1924 has been a very successful one for the .22 caliber rifle team. In addition to the better lighting system of the indoor range, five new rifles were added to the stock making a total of fifteen rifles in all. Whether it was the new rifles, the better lighting system or the men trying for the team made the difference between the rifle team of '24 and that of '23 is not definitely known. The team started out this year with but four men from the team of last year, and the marksmen of this year were developed into a team that has not been beaten and one that has pulled up their record in the 6th corps area matches 20 points above that of last year.

The rifle matches for the year that the team participated in, and won are as follows:

The match between Western and St. Johns Manlius of N. Y.
Western	472 points
St. Johns	450 points
The match between Western and Northwestern Military and Naval Academy of Wisconsin.
Western	931 points
Northwestern	915 points

The rifle team also participated in the 6th corps area match in which 15 schools were entered. Western was probably troubled a bit with over-confidence. In this event she took 6th place.

The rifle team has in front of them for this year a trip to the Gov't range at St. Charles, Mo. Here the cadets will have an opportunity to fire on the 200, 300, 500, and rapid fire ranges. The range at the Academy for the .30 caliber rifles is 100 yards.

A Review

"WHAT THE YEAR 1924 HAS BROUGHT FORTH"

or

"DO YOU REMEMBER WAY BACK WHEN——"

WESTERN HAD THE OUTLYING BARRACKS.

Gone are the days when Captain Buck held forth in "F" and "ANNEX." The remains of "G" with its turrets and secret passages, and the little vine-covered (?) hospital known as "H" in which Captain Leurig and his shivering crew maintained the siege through thick and thin, stand like shadows of the dim past. Father Innovation alias "E" Barracks with its modern equipment and home-like qualities has succeeded in causing us to forget the joys and sorrows with which we met while in the "Outline."

WHEN THE CADET OFFICERS DIDN'T WEAR CAPES AND BOOTS.

"Gee whiz man, it's enough to make a fellow commit two or three barbarisms and twice that number of improprieties." "Bees'-knees" and all the rest of the flapperisms are not adequate to express the thrill that one gets when he sees the W. M. A. Cadet Staff dressed for a formal, Speed Kerr's or a parade. Some modest creature—whose name I would not divulge—has imparted the information that the wearer's thrill far surpasses all the others.

WHEN WESTERN HAD ONLY ONE DRILL PERIOD.

To the old men—and especially Ed. Hall, who, I hear, is the oldest of the old,—the passing of the one-hour drill period seemed like a death knell. Instead, the new feature inaugurated in the year 1923-24, of having two drill periods, namely the third and the fourth, has become both well liked and efficient. Whereas in the past all men either drilled or didn't drill in the period assigned for that work; now men either drill in their designated period or attend class. The result has been a greater distribution of the tactical supervision upon smaller units. The entire system gives evidence of a better co-ordination between both the tactical staff and the corps.

WHEN WESTERN WON THE MISSISSIPPI VALLEY BASKETBALL CHAMPIONSHIP

Shall I ever forget that memorable night? In vain had I tried to keep awake until someone spread the news of the championship game. Somehow in my state of nervous exhaustion, I had dozed into a feverish sleep. Suddenly I seemed to be falling thru space—Crash!!! Boom-Whoopee!!!!!! Reveille. "Get up you quitter, we've won!! Sure as reveille will be blown to-morrow morning, we've won the championship of the Mississippi Valley."

"Yes, yes!! Now I know what Briggs meant when he said—'Ain't it a grand and glorious feeling!'"

WHEN WE DID NOT HAVE THE PLEASURE OF THE RED AND BLUE CLUBS.

In order to give Western life and added "punch" the Red and Blue Clubs were inaugurated. More than merely inaugurated—these organizations have lived, breathed, and thrived. At the beginning of the year, Cadets Ritchie and Hart—who were chosen Captains of these respective clubs—the Blues and the Reds—began the selections of their club members. The selection continued until every cadet was allotted to a definite club. Every phase of school activity was eligible for points. Scholarship, athletics—football, basketball, baseball, track, tennis, handball, golf, horse shoes, swimming, bowling, and indoor baseball,—music, literary activities, military proficiency, and almost every phase of life itself was open to the point winners. The result has been a better spirit in all of the various activities. The winning team which, in many cases, has been THE REDS—Captained by Cadet Hart, has enjoyed a number of banquets and lower Alton visits. Here's to the Club-System, may it ever live, breathe, and thrive.

WHEN WE DID NOT HAVE OUR SATURDAY EVENING "GYM" CLASSES.

Have you ever envied the acrobatic stunts of the sawdust ring? Have you ever secretly wished to out-rival Bird Millman, or do the jiu-jitsu or the hold that made John L. Sullivan famous? How it may be done in ten lessons and a correspondence course at that, are things I will not discuss. Instead I hail as a believer in the art of self-defense and a devotee of the toe-hold the gymnastic antics which have been ably conducted by Mr. Schaffer. The moments spent both by the members of the corps and the class at these instruction classes have been invaluable.

WHEN WE DID NOT HAVE OUR OWN JAZZ ORCHESTRA.

As Western makes the claim of being abreast of the times—first, last, and always, the Jazz Band came into being. The slogan—"Every Note a Gem" has been proved true. Believe me or not, but whenever you see Bob Hattersley, the modern Dionysius, with the saxophone to his lips you may be sure that your 'ol feet are getting ready to tingle. If that won't bring you to your senses the strumming of Hard's banjo, or the moans from Capt. Eaton's bass will gradually set you to swaying. Then too, the way in which Washburn tickles those ivories. Just makes one forget every care—does it not?? Now and then tinny blaze of sound lets us know that Hart and Savage are up to their old tricks; or the subdued sound of the tom-tom from Holmes' corner of the platform reminds us of the immemorial bacchanal lurching through the kaleidoscope of the centuries. A note—a gem—may they never be lost.

WHEN WE DIDN'T HAVE OUR MOVING PICTURE MACHINE.

Gone are the days of craving a good movie for Saturday night. Now since Western has bought that new type "R" DeVry Moving Picture Projector, the life of the cadet has become one fleeting image after another. To sit in the old school room and see the shades of the incomparable Harold Lloyd, the winsome smile of Mary, and the antics of Buster Keaton is one of the new pleasures of 1923-24 given to the cadet corps. The program of pictures has been well chosen so that the pictures will not be only interesting and entertaining but also instructive. Plans are being made so that the moving picture machine may be used in connection with class instruction.

We Nominate for Western's Hall of Fame

GEORGE DANIEL EATON

Because since 1884 he has been interested and actively engaged in educational work; because he served at Western as an instructor, as Quartermaster, as Assistant Principal, and Associate Superintendent; because since 1919 he has capably filled the position of Colonel and Superintendent; because under his supervision Western has made a marked progress; and finally because during the thirty-five years at Western, he has proved himself to be an educator, a leader, and a friend.

JAMES R. JACOBS

Because he has an A. B. from the University of Texas and an A. M. from the University of Chicago; because since 1912 he has served in the United States Army as Lieutenant, Captain, and Major; because during the World War he served with the A. E. F. in the 1st and 6th Divisions; because since 1919 he has been assigned as Professor of Military Science and Tactics at Western; and finally because he has proved himself to be a scholar, an officer, and friend.

NORMAN VOGEL '24

Because he was elected to the editorship of the Recall—a position which he has admirably filled; because he has been a member of the Senior Memorial Committee; because this year marks the close of his fourth year at Western; because he has distinguished himself in military work such as—corporal, sergeant, and lieutenant; because he has spent a summer at the R. O. T. C. at Camp Custer; and finally because he is a candidate for a Second Lieutenantcy in the Officer's Reserve Corps.

We Nominate for Western's Hall of Fame

CLINTON WHITTEMORE '24

Because he has been with us for three years; because he has served as corporal, sergeant, and supply sergeant; because he has chosen Dartmouth as his college; because, during his senior year, he cultivated a taste for Martin Chuzzlewit; and finally because he has received recognition on his aquaplaning activities.

GRAY MAGEE '26

Because for two consecutive years—and possibly two more—he has held a very high place on the Upper Ten; because he has been pledged to the D. P. O.'s; because he has become active in Second Basketball; because he has been recognized as the most competent student in Rhetoric II; because he is a corporal; and finally because he, in his Freshman year, won the competition in the manual of arms.

KENNETH HART '24

Because he is "the all-around-good-fellow, student, and officer;" because, in the three years that he has been here, he has distinguished himself in the band; because he, for two years, has been Captain of the baseball team; because he has been a member of the Upper Ten; because he has been not only the President of the D. P. O.'s but also the President of his Class and the RED CLUB; and finally because he has given a hearty support not only to the Senior Memorial, to the Dance Committee, and other activities, but also to THE RECALL.

Whispering Wheezes Wafted From Western

We don't know whether Ed. Hall makes both ends meet or not, but, no doubt, he manages to scrape along.

When one devours a modern book, it doesn't necessarily indicate a taste for good literature.

If at first you don't succeed, remember that there are other girls that are not particular.

We wish our female friends would stop putting rouge on their lips. Rather poor taste!!

A bore is a man who talks astronomy on a moonlight night.

Experience is something that you get while you are looking for something else.

Just as every dog has his day, so, in olden times, every lady had her knight.

All-A-Flutter—"Oh, Captain, I've heard a lot about you."

Creamm—"Most extraordinary. I've done a lot."

"Did you see Oliver Twist, aunty?"

"Hush child. You know I never attend those modern danees."

"The man who said that we live but once was mistaken."

"How come?"

"Lots of people lead double lives."

Rithie—"Do you like indoor sports?"

Gushie—"O-O-OH-yes—But fawther won't let them stay very long."

"He's the flower of his family."

"Do tell?"

"A blooming idiot."

From an exposition on "Our Preachers"—

"And now, brethren, let us pray for the heathen that lives in the uninhabited parts of the world."

More Wheezes

Mrs. Johnson—"What's wrong with the storm scene in The Tempest?"

Donnelly, J.—"It's wet."

Whittier A la Mode—

"Who touches a hair of you gray head

Dies like a dog! Mah Jongg!" he said.

"It's a bitter loss," said Miss Brown as she mislaid the quinine tablets.

Leurig—"It costs twice as much to live now as it used to."

Dunbar—"But, remember—It's worth it."

We nominate for THE ALL-HISTORICAL

Croquet Player—Joan of Arc, who ended at the stake.

Prize Fighter—Solomon, who made use of the ring.

Tennis Player—Noah, who served many doubles.

Midnight Sportsman—Samson, who started the first pillar fight.

Archer—Venus, who wielded many a beau.

Drop Kicker—Charon, who punted across the Styx.

Pitcher—The Egyptian slave, who fanned Cleopatra.

Colored Officer—"Eyes Right!"

Black Private—"You amn like hell."

How to Keep Smart

by

Dr. Noz-It-All.

If you can't make your mark at Western, go to Germany and make 1,800 a day.

Weiss—"I've got a chance for the track team."

Wise Stude—"Well, are you going to raffle it off?"

Sympathetic—"What brought you to prison, my poor man?"

Alcoholic—"The patrol wagon."

First Crush—"Vogel, doesn't have much of a line, does he?"

Second Choice—"No, he can't even string a banjo."

Commencement Events Cast Their Shadows

THE crash of symbols, the blare of the trumpets, the thundering of the drums, and the surging of the crowds—men and women, fathers and mothers, friends and relatives,—all will herald the beginning of Commencement Week. To many of us these symbols are cryptic. Behind them lurks the message of The End. More than that—the message of The Parting of the Ways. My commencement—your commencement will be remembered by us in the years to come.

Friday and Saturday June 6th and 7th, will be devoted to the completion of the Academic work—examinations will be given, grades will be averaged, and honors will be announced.

Sunday June 8th will announce the honor due to the Class of 1924. The Baccalaureate Sermon will be preached at the Upper Alton Baptist Church. Later in the afternoon, a formal parade will be held.

Monday will be a "full day." The morning will be spent in packing, military tactics, and "Re-exams;" the afternoon will be given over to the Senior Play. Then too THE RECALL will make its appearance. In the evening the musical organizations will demonstrate their ability—only as they can do it.

June the 10th—the mystic day of days—will hold a charm for everyone. Promptly at the hour of Ten the Senior Procession will form at the north door of the "Admin" and march to the Drill Hall. The Salutation of welcome will be given; a response will follow from the speaker of the day; and the Valedictorian will pronounce the words of farewell. The distribution of medals, prizes and honors will follow the awarding of diplomas. The military staff will devote the afternoon to military exhibitions. The final march of the 1923-24 school year will be when the Senior Prom Grand march begins. There will be happiness, sorrow, and memories as the one o'clock Taps sound.

Wednesday June 11th, will gaze upon a civilian Academy. The eight-thirty formation will be "short, sweet, and sad." The words "Corps Dismissed" will tell us that soon we will find ourselves whisked away in the train—which will carry us out into the world of Manhood and stern reality.

"Though our heads grow white and hoary,

Though our forms grow old and bent,

May we ever shout in glory,

May we stand erect—intent,

As the echo laden breeze

Whispers to us words like these—

"Carry On."

The Senior Prom.

Given by the Class of 1924

Tuesday Evening, June 10, 1924.

THE strains of soft music, the rustle of flimsy materials, the clank of sabers and spurs, the rhythmic scrape of slippered feet—then, then, the 1923-24 school year will have closed.

There will be guests, friends, cadets, and officers. Father and mother will come up purposely in order to allow sister to dance with her soldierly brother in the glory of his school's last social affair. To give the party the air of discretion, chaperons will be present. June with its lovely flowers will give forth a bower of beauty over which the full moon will pour down his light of approval. The east grove will be aglow with the squandered light of many Japanese lanterns. The entire grove will assume the appearance of a Japanese garden. In spite of the joyousness of the occasion, the orchestra will hint of the parting which will follow close on the heels of the morrow. But, why should we break the spell! Here in our realm of magic happiness, enthralled by the Circe of Events, we will again live the great moments of the world in the realm of the silent-make-belief.

The committee for the 1924 Prom is composed of

LIEUTENANT KENNETH HART, President of the Class

LIEUTENANT WALTER P. RITCHIE

LIEUTENANT NORMAN MALDANER

The Senior Play
THE TAILOR MADE MAN.
Given by the Class of 1923.

The Senior Play

THERE is no activity of Commencement Week that affords more pleasure to both the cadets and their friends than The Senior Play. This annual production is given so late in the academic year that the Recall staff is unable to make favorable comment upon the production. The Staff of The 1924 Recall sets the precedent of having each succeeding staff review the play of the previous year.

The Class of 1923, under the direction of Mrs. Johnson, presented the play, "The Tailor-Made Man." I feel most certain that my memory does not play me false when I make the assertion that the players did themselves proud and showed skill in acting and the good results of thorough practice and good direction.

The Play is difficult in that it is based upon the theory of a play within a play. The whole action is laid upon a group of unit actions, each of which is made necessary to the whole action. The basis of unity lies in influence of an economic problem which forms the nucleus of the play. Thus it is that such a plot gives a chance for a great variety of talent to be displayed.

The New Barracks "E"

New Fireproof Dormitory, Barracks "E" Completed

Barracks "E," under construction since last July, is now occupied by the old cadets who have been in temporary quarters.

The building is 35 feet wide and 95 feet long, three stories, with full basement, and fireproof throughout. It is of the English style of architecture, with battlemented parapets, similar to the other eight buildings, and it has a distinctly military character.

It is constructed of broken ashlar Alton stone up to the first story window sills, and above this of Alton paving brick, trimmed with Bedford stone. The building contains thirty-four rooms for cadets and two suites for officers. It is equipped with all modern conveniences and is heated by hot water.

H. G. Clymer, of St. Louis, was the architect. The general contract was awarded to the Wm. MacDonald Construction Company, of St. Louis. The heating and plumbing was installed by the Karr Supply Company, of Belleville, Ill. It happens that all of these parties either are, or have been patrons of the school, and have taken, therefore, a personal interest in the construction.

Western's capacity has been overtaxed for some years, and several residences have been used as outlying barracks. In order to provide standard accommodations for the overflow, this new building was necessary. It will not materially increase the capacity of the school, now about three hundred.

During the year 1923-24, Barracks "E" was under the supervision of Captain Leurig, the faculty barracks chief, Lieutenant Maldaner, the cadet barracks chief, and his second in charge, Lieutenant Clutter. Sergeants Whittmore, Channer, Kraper, Grant and Belding acted as floor chiefs and seconds-in-charge on the different floors.

The Honor Men of 1924

PAT MURPHY

THE VALEDICTORIAN

To Pat Murphy, of St. Louis, Mo., is given the honor of "the closing speaker for the Class of 1924." Prior to his coming to Western in the Fall of 1923, Murphy attended school at Bowling Green and St. Louis, Mo. His position on the Upper Ten was indicative of his placing in the final honors; his average of 92.5% indicates a high degree of scholarship. Next year Murphy will enter an eastern college.

THE SALUTATORIAN

To Edward Bennett Zey, of Butler, Mo., is awarded the final honor of Salutatorian of the Class of 1924. Zey as one of the new men has gained recognition in his scholastic work by his constant placing on the Upper Ten. His final average was 92.3%. Next year Zey will enter Dartmouth.

The members of the Class of 1924 and the Corps congratulate these men upon their success.

A Scientific Reaction

by Chlorine

x—When you examine a dog's lungs under the microscope, what do you find?

y—The seat of his pants.

Mc.—What was Darwin's business?

Ac—Monkey business.

Up and atom said the molecule as the electrolysis started.

Stud—

A—Science tells us that we hear much better with our eyes closed.

z—Yes, I noticed a large number trying the experiment in my class, last week.

How Do You Feel????

“PUNK,” said the firecracker.

“FINE,” said the judge.

“FIT,” said the tailor.

“FIRST RATE,” said the postmaster.

“GRATE,” said the coal.

“ALLWRITE,” said the pencil.

Garage man—“What's the matter, got a nail in your tire?”

Delly—“No, just ran over a fork in the road.”

In Appreciation

THE second volume of the RECALL is done. As we lean back in our editorial chair and take a breath of relief, we remember, with sincere gratitude, the efforts of the faculty and the cadets, other than the members of the Board, who have cheerfully expended time and labor on the book. We take this opportunity to thank the following for their efforts to make the RECALL of 1924 a success:

THE END

the 1990s, the number of people with a mental health problem has increased by 50% (Mental Health Foundation 1999). The prevalence of mental health problems has increased in the general population, and the incidence of mental health problems has increased in the prison population.

There is a growing awareness of the need to address the mental health needs of prisoners. The Department of Health (2000) has published a strategy for mental health services, which includes a commitment to improve the mental health of prisoners. The Department of Health (2000) has also published a strategy for mental health services, which includes a commitment to improve the mental health of prisoners.
